Luke 6:12–16 (NIV84)

<sup>12</sup> One of those days Jesus went out to a mountainside to pray, and spent the night praying to God. <sup>13</sup> When morning came, he called his disciples to him and chose twelve of them, whom he also designated apostles: <sup>14</sup> Simon (whom he named Peter), his brother Andrew, James, John, Philip, Bartholomew, <sup>15</sup> Matthew, Thomas, James son of Alphaeus, Simon who was called the Zealot, <sup>16</sup> Judas son of James, and Judas Iscariot, who became a traitor.

GROUP OUTLINE | WEEK OF 6.22.14

1. How do you go about making major decisions?
2. Why does it help to get away to pray? Do you have a special place you go to pray?
3. What differences do you see between a follower of Jesus, a disciple and an apostle?
4. Have you ever truly felt “CALLED” to do something for the Lord? What led you to do it, or not do it?
5. What are you feeling God calling you to do right now?
6. How can we help one another pursue these callings?
